Vaisala’s President and CEO Kjell Forsén comments on the third quarter 2019

“Vaisala’s strong performance continued during the third quarter. Orders received and net sales grew in both business areas and all geographical areas, EMEA growing strongest. A good third of the order intake growth came from acquired businesses. Order intake growth reached 45% in Weather and Environment Business Area. Strong growth in transportation customer segment continued, orders from meteorology customers increased by more than half and wind lidars generated growth in renewable energy customer segment. Industrial Measurements Business Area’s order intake grew by 23%.

Third quarter net sales grew by one fourth. Weather and Environment Business Area’s net sales growth was excellent at 27% following strong performance in all regions. Project deliveries increased significantly during third quarter after a very slow first half of the year. Increase in product sales came from wind lidars. Industrial Measurements Business Area’s quarterly net sales were highest ever, as a result of 22% growth generated by strong performance in all regions.

Operating result margin was excellent 15.5%. Improvement of operating result followed excellent net sales growth but also required increase in operating expenses. Two thirds of the increase in operating expenses came from acquired businesses. Weather and Environment Business Area’s operating result margin was good as typical for second half and Industrial Measurement Business Area’s margin was strong at 23.6%.
Strategy execution has been progressing well. Industrial Measurement’s flagship markets, high-end humidity and high-end carbon dioxide, have still brought one third of business area’s net sales growth this year and almost half of the growth has been generated by acquisition of liquid measurements business. During this year, continuous monitoring systems have reached nearly 30% growth compared to previous year. In industrial measurements, power industry applications have had the highest growth but delivery quantities are still quite low. Integration of K-Patents acquisition progressed well during the third quarter when all functions working in liquid measurements product area moved to Vaisala premises in Vantaa.

Weather and Environment has made excellent progress in large system project deliveries. On-going projects in Bahamas, Vietnam, Argentina and Sweden have brought one fifth of business area’s project revenues this year. Delay in development of enhanced air quality measurement product has postponed planned expansion to environmental measurements in urban markets. Growth of wind lidar business has been lagging behind objectives due to ramp-up issues in new production site.

In August, Vaisala announced acquisition of professional business-to-business weather services from a Finnish weather forecast services company Foreca Oy. This acquisition fits well to Vaisala’s digital transformation strategy by strengthening digital offering for weather critical operations and bringing valuable skills and assets in data analytics, forecasting, and impact analysis. I warmly welcome our new colleagues who joined Vaisala in the closing of the acquisition on October 1. In connection with this acquisition, Vaisala announced renewal of digital businesses’ focus and reorganization of its operations. To drive business performance and innovation speed, we focus on transportation, renewable energy, lightning and data-driven operations by building up enhanced competences in machine learning and artificial intelligence and by consolidating our data centers into two locations.”

January–September 2019 gross margin improved to 54.3 (52.5) % as a result of improved profitability of product deliveries and high share of product sales in both business areas. Gross margin improved especially during the second quarter.

January–September 2019 operating result declined from previous year and was EUR 23.5 (24.9) million, 8.2 (10.4) % of net sales. Net sales growth and improved gross margin increased operating result. Growth required also increase in operating expenses. Operating expenses included EUR 7.2 million of non-cash amortization of intangible assets. Operating result declined due to costs in other operating income and expenses of EUR -3.1 (0.5) million. These costs included costs related to Vaisala’s digital business refocus and reorganization, one-off expense related to a lease contract termination, and expenses related to a decision to terminate a product line in the US.

Near-term risks and uncertainties

Uncertainties in international trade policies, political situation and governmental customers’ budgetary constraints or changes in their sourcing criteria may reduce or delay demand for Vaisala’s products and services.
Delay in developing applications for digital solutions as well as acquiring and in building related competences for sales and business operations may slow down growth in Weather and Environment Business Area. Closing of infrastructure contracts in Weather and Environment Business Area may be postponed by budgetary constraints, complex customer decision making processes, changes in scope, and financing. Disturbance in project delivery performance may reduce or postpone associated profit. Thus, Vaisala’s financial performance may vary significantly over time.

Prolonged new product ramp-ups, market acceptances and regulatory certifications of new offering, such as power transformer monitoring products, supplementary air quality sensors and networks, and digital solutions, may postpone realization of Vaisala’s growth plans.

Long interruption in production or test equipment or disruption in suppliers’ and subcontractors’ delivery capability or product quality may impact significantly Vaisala’s net sales and profitability. Cyber risk and downtime of IT systems may impact operations, and delivery of digital solutions.

Vaisala’s capability to successfully complete investments, acquisitions, divestments and restructurings on a timely basis and to achieve related financial and operational targets includes uncertainties and risks, which may negatively impact net sales and profitability.

Further information about risk management and risks are available on Annual Report and on the company website at www.vaisala.com/investors.
