

VAISALA

3 steps to meeting wind challenges at solar energy plants with Wind Lidar

Vaisala WindCube® Scan remotely measures wind over an area of more than 300km² in real time

Wind gusts are typically detected 5 to 15 minutes in advance

Solar power plant operators make informed decisions to stow panels in a timely manner, minimizing the risk of damage, costly repairs, and downtime

Image courtesy RayGen